Notes from the

As this year draws to a close and a new one begins, the Livonia Public Library invites you to join us for a season of joy, creativity, and connection.

This fall, we were overjoyed with the community's engagement in our One City, One Book program celebrating Livonia's 75th Anniversary. This year's selection, "The All American" by Susie Finkbeiner inspired a record number of participants! In total we hosted 15 programs spanning local history, live music, a 1950s fashion show, and a visit from the author herself! With a total of over 525 attendees at these programs, we'd call this year's OCOB a rousing success.

Looking towards the winter months, we are thrilled to once again be hosting the Merry & Bright Parade's After Party!

This free, family-friendly event will take place at the Bennett Civic Center Library on Sunday, December 7 at the conclusion of the City of Livonia's Merry & Bright Holiday Parade. Stop by the library for holiday themed crafts and photo opportunities with Santa and Mrs. Claus. You may even see Buddy the Elf make an appearance in the festive atmosphere! Please note that only the library atrium and meeting rooms will be open during this event, and regular library services will not be available.

Additionally, bring your creativity to the library all month long with Holiday Art a la Carte! Running December 9-27, stop by the Bennett Civic Center Library Children's Department during any library open hours to explore a variety of holiday crafts. All ages are welcome, and adult supervision is required.

As we head into the new year, we remain dedicated to providing resources that inspire learning, spark creativity, and help you meet your 2026 goals. Have a safe and happy holiday season!
